MERCURY

EXCELLENCE AWARDS

2011 | 2012

~~DEADLINE: NOVEMBER 11, 2011~~

EXTENDED TO: DECEMBER 12TH

Silver Jubilee Celebration

25 Years Later...

...and we are still singing the praises for the world's best in corporate communications!

For a quarter of a century, the MERCURY Awards have celebrated the creative professionals whose exceptional intelligence, innovation, hard work, creativity and style have made a difference in this industry.

In 1987, the MERCURY Awards was founded with a singular mission: to promote excellence, quality and performance in the various fields of public relations. The competition remains unique. It is the world's only independent awards organization. We accept no advertising, no membership fees, or outside sponsors. As such, we guarantee fairness and impartiality.

The annual award was named for the Roman god who was the messenger of the other gods. The MERCURY Award symbolizes the spirit of the message communicated. We remain committed to the human spark of creativity which serves to advance standards of excellence.

As we celebrate our 25th anniversary, we'd like to thank the agencies, companies and organizations who have submitted the best of their work over the years.

We look forward to the opportunity to dedicate our best efforts to you for decades to come.

Wishing honor, kudos and success!

JUDGING PROCEDURES

JUDGING CRITERIA

The MERCURY Awards Competition is unique in that each entry is judged against itself, to the degree that the individual entry achieves its intended purpose. Entries from large or small organizations have an equal chance at winning. Judging is based not on budget, but on the values of creativity, effectiveness, performance and success.

Some of the elements to be considered in the judging process are: how effectively the material meets the stated objectives; how well the material is communicated to the designated audience; use of imaginative and original solutions; the use of material to illustrate and clarify the information; and the overall expression of the message.

JUDGING PROCESS

Each entry is evaluated three times during the preliminary judging rounds. The three sets of scores are then averaged into a single score for the individual entry. Awards are given to the top third scoring entries. Point totals will qualify entries for specific awards. Only one Gold, Silver, Bronze, and Honors Award will be given in each classification; however, if no entry scores high enough, no award will be given. The Gold Award Winners become candidates for the Grand Awards. In addition, one Best of Show Award will be presented to the top entry among all the classifications.

SPECIAL NOTES ABOUT JUDGING

Each entry will be judged on its own merit without regard to apparent cost of producing the communications piece. Entries are judged in the absolute, according to a predefined set of criteria, each against itself, instead of relative superiorities.

AWARDS CEREMONY & DISPLAY

A Champagne Reception with the display of all the award winning entries is presently planned for March 2012 in New York City.

Only the MERCURY Awards provides recognition equally to small local agencies as to the world's largest public relations firms. Neither judges, nor sponsors, have any stake in who wins. You don't have to be an advertiser, a member, or a sponsor to win. It's the quality of the work that counts!

REASONABLE RULES & REGULATIONS

There is nothing complicated about the MERCURY Awards. No "tricks" you need to know to win. No special binders to buy or fussy rules to follow. Most importantly, no entry is disqualified without notification. And if your entry must be disqualified, your entry fee will be refunded.

SEE YOUR SCORES

Judging procedures are objective, based on specific criteria. Win or not, you can see your score sheets, complete with the judges' comments and constructive suggestions. This is an invaluable record of what can be improved and what the strengths are. In fact, this professional evaluation alone is worth the entry fee.

BENEFITS & KUDOS

The MERCURY Awards are perhaps the most distinguished program of its kind and continues to be one of the most highly coveted awards in the profession.
